IRAN'S ELECTION RESULT: A NUCLEAR DEAL IS MORE NECESSARY THAN EVER

BY TERESA TRALLORI

ON JUNE 18, IRANIANS HEADED TO THE POLLS TO ELECT THE 8TH PRESIDENT OF THE ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF IRAN, FOUNDED IN 1979 AFTER A REVOLUTION THAT OVERTHREW THE SHAH'S REGIME. THE ELECTION HAS DRAWN MUCH CRITICISM IN THE COUNTRY AND ABROAD: WHILE THERE HASN'T BEEN EVIDENCE OF POLLS MANIPULATIONS, THE OUTCOME SEEMED ALREADY DECIDED BEFORE THE VOTING.

UPPING THE ANTE FOR HIGHLY SKILLED MIGRANTS

BY NICHOLAS KULAWIAK

Amid the attention paid to China’s recent move to allow married couples to have three children in order to “[actively cope] with an aging population,” and the ongoing hand wringing about a pandemic-related “baby bust” in the United States, the proposed changes to the European Union’s high skilled migration policy have not garnered much attention.

23RD FEBRUARY 1982: THE DAY GREENLAND LEFT THE EUROPEAN UNION

Ilulissat, Greenland (source: European Commission website)

BY SAMUEL TOURON,
TRANSLATED BY MARTINE WILMES

What if the UK was not the first country to leave the European Union? On 23rd February 1982, Greenland, another overseas territory, left the EU following a referendum. Greenland has a population of 58,081, barely more than the French department of Lozère, or the English town of Canterbury. However, it is six times the size of Germany. Greenland has a special status as part of the Kingdom of Denmark: it is a 'constituent country'. It also benefits from a special association agreement with the EU, stemming from a unique and instructive relation.

REACTIONS AND ATTITUDES TOWARDS SEXUAL ASSAULT IN THE V4

BY VĚRA DVOŘÁKOVÁ

With Harvey Weinstein sent to prison and multiple actors speaking up against powerful men, (such as in the latest case of Evan Rachel Wood against Marilyn Manson), debates on sexual assault or harassment might seem like old news. As TNF has reported in the past, the #MeToo movement impacted Europe as well, although this impact isn't the same in all countries.

WHAT A “GREEN RECOVERY” MEANS FOR BELGIUM AND THE GREENS

BY A.L. ASHKENAZ

“Transition” seems to be the keyword of the day, at least for Petra De Sutter. In the keynote session for the 33rd Council of the European Green Party, Belgian deputy prime minister De Sutter highlighted the recent successes of the European Green Party and the key challenges they need to address.
